

Making a custom panel for your sequences

A panel with all sequences

- Use Plug-ins > Quite Imposing Plus > My panels > New panel
- Choose “Automation sequences (each button runs one sequence)”

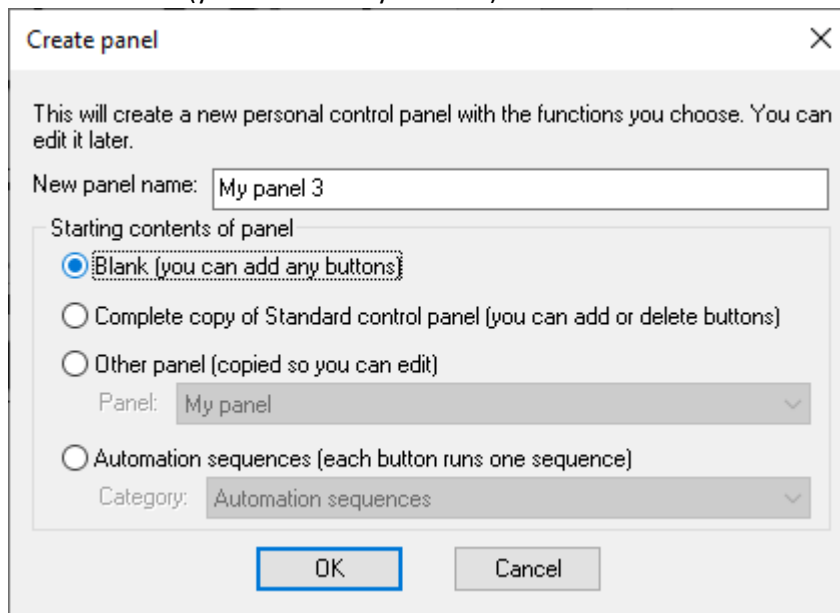

The 'Create panel' dialog box is shown. It has a title bar with a close button (X). The main text says: 'This will create a new personal control panel with the functions you choose. You can edit it later.' Below this is a text field for 'New panel name:' containing 'My panel 3'. Under the heading 'Starting contents of panel', there are three radio button options: 'Blank (you can add any buttons)', 'Complete copy of Standard control panel (you can add or delete buttons)', and 'Automation sequences (each button runs one sequence)'. The third option is selected. Below these is a dropdown menu for 'Panel:' showing 'My panel'. At the bottom, there is a 'Category:' dropdown menu showing 'Automation sequences'. At the very bottom are 'OK' and 'Cancel' buttons.

- Panel includes all of the sequences – this may not be good if you have a lot of sequences

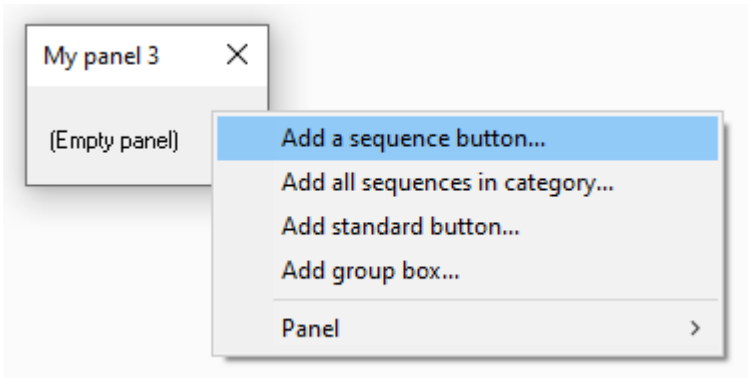

Choosing some sequences for the panel

- Use Plug-ins > Quite Imposing Plus > My panels > New panel
- Choose “Blank (you can add any buttons)”

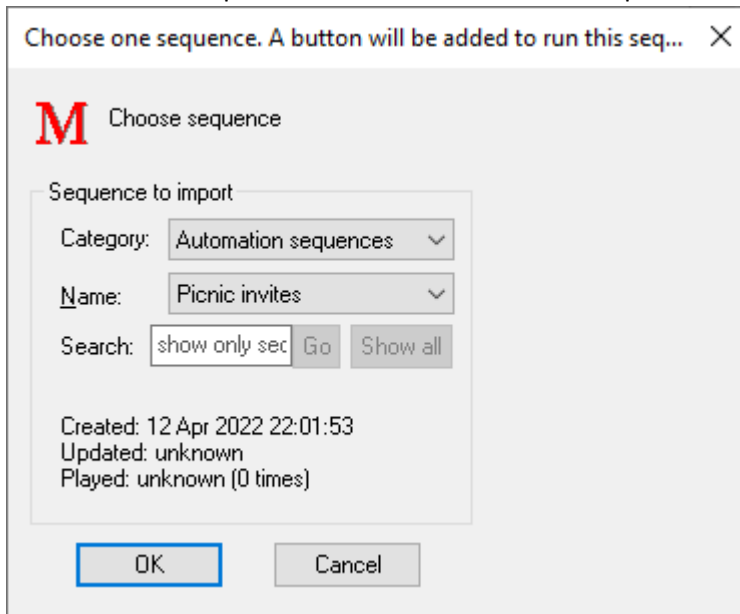

The 'Create panel' dialog box is shown. It has a title bar with a close button (X). The main text says: 'This will create a new personal control panel with the functions you choose. You can edit it later.' Below this is a text field for 'New panel name:' containing 'My panel 3'. Under the heading 'Starting contents of panel', there are three radio button options: 'Blank (you can add any buttons)', 'Complete copy of Standard control panel (you can add or delete buttons)', and 'Other panel (copied so you can edit)'. The first option is selected. Below these is a dropdown menu for 'Panel:' showing 'My panel'. At the bottom, there is a 'Category:' dropdown menu showing 'Automation sequences'. At the very bottom are 'OK' and 'Cancel' buttons.

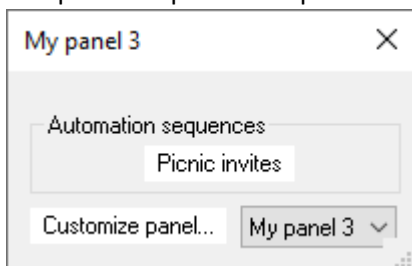

- A new empty panel is shown. Right click

- Choose "Add a sequence button" and select one sequence to add

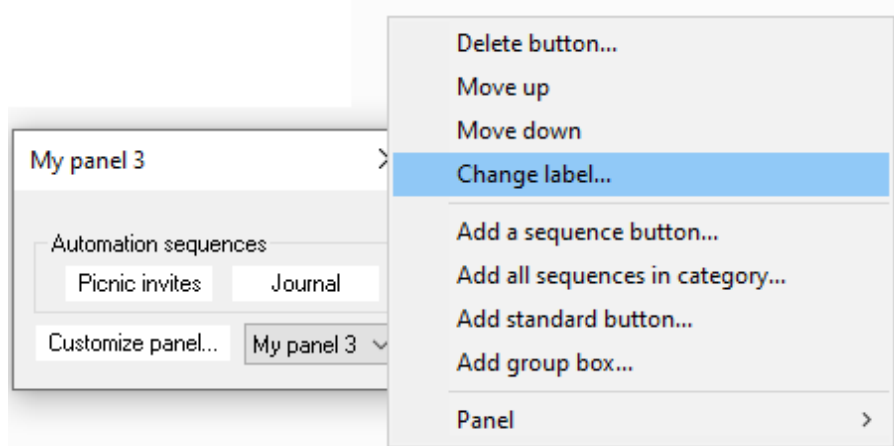

- The panel is updated. Repeat to add more sequences.

Editing the panel

- You can right click on the buttons and boxes to change label

- You can also move buttons up and down
